Directions to St Leonards

Where are we ?

The Parish Church is in Langho, situated in the Ribble Valley between Blackburn and Clitheroe. We serve the communities of Langho, Billington, Brockhall, York and Dinckley.

How do you get there ?

We are reached easily by good rail, bus and road links.

By Rail The nearest station is Langho, on the Northern Rail service from Manchester to Clitheroe. From the station walk to Whalley Road and turn left. The Church is a ten minute walk down the hill, following the cycle signs for Whalley, or catch the 225 bus to the Petre Arms.

By Bus The main services that pass the Church are the 225 (Bolton to Clitheroe) and 280 (Preston to Skipton) both of which stop at the Petre Arms next to St Leonard's Church. Bus stops are shown on the map opposite.

By Car From Blackburn follow the A666 signposted Clitheroe. On passing through Langho village you will come to the Petre Arms roundabout. Take the 3rd exit, signposted Whalley. The Church is about 200 yards on the left past the Petre Arms.

From the Clitheroe direction, follow the A59 towards Preston / Blackburn (A666) until you reach the Petre Arms roundabout. Take the first exit, signposted Whalley. The Church is about 200 yards on the left past the Petre Arms.

From the Whalley/Accrington/Colne direction follow the signs for Clitheroe and then Whalley. In the centre of Whalley, opposite the Dog Inn, turn left at the mini-roundabout. After about 1 mile, the Church is on the right hand side of the road, opposite Mytton Fold Hotel.

Our facilities

- Wheelchair ramp access.
- Loop system.
- Disabled toilet, in the community centre behind the Church.
- Large print versions of service sheets.

Please ask a sidesperson for any assistance you may require.

P

During very busy services free parking is available at Mytton Fold Hotel across the road from the Church.
Guests can be dropped off at the Church before parking.

Please DO NOT park in the Petre Arms car park as this is privately owned.
